

The Subcommittee 'Core Spatial Data' of the Netherlands Geodetic Commission organizes in co-operation with the GIS technology Section of TU Delft the following seminar*:

'Core Spatial Data'

on the occasion

of the

25th Jubilee of Tjeu (Mathias) Lemmens at TU Delft

18 December 2008

Aula TU Delft, the Netherlands

- | | | |
|-------|---|--------------------------------------|
| 12.30 | Reception/Coffee | |
| 13.00 | Opening/Welcome | Peter van Oosterom (TU Delft) |
| 13.10 | Feasibility of a multi-scale information model and one key register 'Topography' | Jantien Stoter (ITC) |
| 13.40 | AHN in perspective:
The (im)possibilities of Digital Elevation Data as Core Spatial Data | Stefan Flos (SJF Projects & Support) |
| 14.10 | The research agenda of the NCG Subcommittee 'Core Spatial Data' | George Vosselman (ITC) |
| 14.40 | Break | |
| 15.00 | CycloMedia's aerial and ground-based image databases | Frank van den Heuvel (CycloMedia) |
| 15.30 | Cadastral information:
More than base data | Jaap Zevenbergen (TU Delft & ITC) |
| 16.00 | Laissez-faire in the air, a real nightmare | Robert Kroon (Geodelta) |
| 16.30 | Informal Reception:
Putting Tjeu Lemmens in the 'limelight' | |
- * Presentations will be given in Dutch!